$75 for 7 Billion Souls

Recently someone toured the Truth For The World building and heard about the work we are doing for global evangelism. At the end of the tour he told me something like, "I wish I could write you a check for a million dollars." The thought wasn't too surprising, because I have wished myself that I could give lots of money to Truth For The World. But a few minutes later, it hit me. I thought to myself, "We don't really need a million dollars. What we really need is for everyone to just give a little, and that would take care of our financial needs."

You might think that you can't do a lot because you don't have loads of money. But perhaps that is what everyone else is thinking and that's why more people don't give. They feel like the small amount they have to give won't really make a difference. But the truth is, if everybody gave a little, that would add up to a whole lot. It's sort of like the congregation with very few children. A family with children visits and decides not to stay, but rather go to another congregation because that congregation has no children. Then another family visits and does the same. It turns out that if all the families who visited and left because there were no children had actually stayed, the congregation would have a bunch of children. But nobody decided to be the first.

Everyone has a little, and that's all we are asking for. Sure, if you want to donate a million dollars we will put it to work. But we know that most people, including us, don't have that. But the truth is, we don't need a million dollars to be busy doing the Lord's work. We just need for everyone to believe that their amount, whether big or small, can do good work, and that even if no one else has given, they are willing to be the first.

In a nutshell, Truth For The World is running an annual deficit and needs to increase the amount of annual income it receives to continue current projects, and grow the new projects and outreach that have been planned. If this annual income is not reached, sections of Truth For The World, such as the Bible Correspondence Courses, will need to be shut down as those who are working to keep them going are let go. Our estimated budget for 2015 will be about $177,000, most of which goes to pay the 3 full-time and 2 part-time personnel that work on Truth For The World projects. Our projected annual income will be about $35,000 below that.

Therefore, we are kicking off a $75 for 7 Billion Souls annual fund campaign. If we can raise about $75,000 more in annual income, then we can continue and even grow our current outreach to 7 billion souls. We are looking for 1,000 individuals or congregations to pledge to give $75 per year in order to make this happen. That breaks down to $6.25 per month, or about the cost of two gourmet coffees. I told you we weren't asking for a lot.

The extra $75,000 per year in annual income will allow us to:

- Keep the current staff and services. – $35,000
- Add one more full-time staff member to share the workload - $30,000
- Add global shortwave radio broadcasting to over 1 billion people - $10,000

Please prayerfully consider contributing to this effort. Together we can teach all nations!

You Can Teach Bible Correspondence Students!

Truth For The World needs more Bible Correspondence Course teachers to meet the needs of our fast-growing student base. Recently, in a single week, TFTW added 77 new students. That's 11 souls asking to learn the Gospel every day! This increase in students is very encouraging. Not only does it mean that people are lining up to learn God's word, but also that you have a new opportunity to follow the command given in Mark 16 to "preach the gospel to every creature."

By becoming a BCC teacher you can act as a spiritual resource for souls around the world by grading their courses and answering Bible questions. This will help your students grow spiritually and give them the knowledge they need to become part of the Lord's church or grow in their knowledge of the Bible. You can potentially help lost souls all over the globe without ever leaving your home!

Our BCC students have already demonstrated readiness to learn by signing up for our program. Like all lost souls, they deserve to know the truth, and it is our privilege and responsibility as Christians to share it with them.

The task of teaching can be intimidating. Christians may feel they do not have the knowledge, the skill, or the opportunity needed to teach others. Our BCCs solve this problem by providing educational materials that facilitate teaching the truth. Our resources, such as tracts, radio programs, etc., answer a variety of doctrinal questions so you will feel confident in your knowledge and ability to teach.

Visit truthfortheworld.org/bcc/teachers/questionnaire to fill out our doctrinal questionnaire and start teaching willing students the Gospel of Christ. We greatly appreciate your prayers on behalf of our BCC students and teachers!
